✓ 40 hours of community involvement activities

- 40 volunteer hours are required to graduate
- These can be completed through getting involved with school initiatives and community events or fundraisers
- We encourage all students to go beyond the 40 hours and work to achieve as many hours as you can
- Having these extra hours will be beneficial when you go through the process of applying to universities/colleges

Course Selection (Gr. 11)

- Students in Grade 11 are required to take 8 COURSES
- However, students who have more than 16 credits entering Grade 11 may choose to take 7 courses plus a spare
- If possible, you should select courses you are interested in that also satisfy the Group 1, 2 and 3 category requirements (if you have not yet achieved them)
- Course choices in Grade 11 are significant as they lay the foundation for Grade 12 coursework and post-secondary pathways
- As a result, students should check http://www.ontariouniversitiesinfo.ca/ and https://www.ontariocolleges.ca/en/ for the admissions requirements for specific programs and choose Grade 11 and 12 courses accordingly
- Students should keep in mind that many Grade 12 courses have Grade 11 courses as prerequisites
- Students may take a maximum of two Grade 12 courses while in Grade 11
